

I just need to say that K-LOVE is what gets me through my day many times! It is such a blessing and to remove it from my public radio would be a tragedy. So many lives are being touched by this station. It is suiting for the whole family. I feel that there is not enough positive reinforcement in the world we live in today and K-LOVE is what a lot of people need.